Prison Rape Elimination Act

PREA

Introduction

Staff, Contractor, or Volunteer on Offender

Offender-on-Offender

Signed into law by President George W. Bush in 2003

PREA, and the subsequent PREA standards established by the Department of Justice, require corrections agencies to improve prevention, detection, and responses to sexual violence committed against offenders in public and private facilities and institutions throughout the United States.

PREA applies to staff, contractor, or volunteer sexual violence against offenders and to offender-on-offender sexual violence.

Prison Rape Elimination Act

PREA

Introduction

National standards adopted as federal rule by the Department of Justice apply to all public and private:

- » Federal and State Prisons and Jails
- » Community Corrections
- » Juvenile Facilities
- » Immigration Detention Facilities
- » Lock ups

PREA

Reality

PREA acknowledges reality:

- » Sexual violence against offenders is a security issue.
- » Sex acts committed by staff, contractors, or volunteers with offenders is a crime.
- » Victims of prison rape suffer severe psychological and physical effects that hinder their ability to integrate back into society.

PREA

The issue of consent

There is no allowable sexual contact between offenders.

Offender-on-Offender :

Perceived consent may not be “consent” in reality. Other offenders may exercise an influencing degree of intimidation and control. Would the offender use his/her body for protection if not in prison, residential facility, or jail?

Prison Rape Elimination Act

PREA

Introduction

There is no consent for sexual behavior with an offender.

Staff, Contractor, Volunteer -on-Offender:

Offenders are never regarded as being in a position to grant legitimate “consent.” This is because of the unequal balance of power and authority between you and offenders.

Just to be CLEAR --

Even though the words "prison", "prisoner", "inmate" and "offender" are referenced repeatedly in the law, PREA applies to ALL individuals under the supervision of the IDOC.

The PREA mandates and standards apply to all IDOC institutions and Community Based Corrections.

How does this impact you as a contractor or volunteer?

Staff, contractor, or volunteer sexual misconduct with an offender is a crime under Iowa Code 709.16:

“An officer, employee, contractor, vendor, volunteer, or agent of the department of corrections, or an officer, employee, or agent of a judicial district department of correctional services, who engages in a sex act with an individual committed to the custody of the department of corrections or a judicial district department of correctional services commits an aggravated misdemeanor.”

How to Report

Report Misconduct

You must report any information given to you by an offender that would follow the criteria given above.

Report it immediately to a staff member or shift supervisor by requesting to talk to them.

You will not know the outcome, but if a staff member, contractor, or volunteer is found guilty of sexual misconduct with an offender, they will be referred to criminal authorities for prosecution.

Concluding Thoughts

Zero Tolerance

No Retaliation

And finally...

The Iowa DOC has zero tolerance for all forms of sexual violence.

All offenders have the right to be free from any form of sexual violence by an offender , staff member, contractor or volunteer.

And you have the right to be free from retaliation for reporting or for cooperating with an investigation of this conduct.

Zero tolerance is good correctional practice and is not new to IDOC; sexual violence in any form has never been permitted.

IDOC will continue to make our correctional facilities safe for all offenders, staff, contractors, and volunteers.
